

National Young Readers Week November 9-13, 2009

Woodgate Elementary celebrated Young Readers Week by inviting “Celebrity” readers to come and share their favorite childhood book with a classroom of K-5th grade students. This event, hosted by Reading Specialist Patsy O’Hara, featured “Celebrity” readers which included the Superintendent, Dr. Wynn, Deputy Superintendent, Ms. Mason(not pictured) Principal, Dr. King, Director of Pupil Services, Mr. Thompson, Payroll Clerk, Ms. Fox (not pictured) and School Board Member, Ms. Mallard (not pictured). Both students and “celebrities” enjoyed the experience immensely!

Dr. Wynn, Superintendent
District 159

Dr. Wynn reads aloud to Kindergarten

Dr. King, Principal Woodgate
Elementary

Mr. Thompson, Director of Pupil
Services

Dr. King reads aloud to 2nd grade